Visiting Lecturers

Invitations have been sent to Ross Woodman (Western) for some time in November (the 11th?) and to Conor Cruise O'Brien (NYU) for late January or early February.

A generous donor has agreed to support a visiting lecturership that would enable us to invite a leading scholar to spend a week or so with the department. We are hoping to welcome the first such guest in late February or early March.

Miscellaneous Information

Neil Compton and Mervin Butovsky elected President and Secretary-Treasurer of ACUTE for the coming year.

Wynne Francis' article on Montreal Poets of the Forties reprinted in A Choice of Critics (OUP).

Michael Gnarowski's Index to Contact, with a historical introduction and facsimiles of unpublished letters by Ezra Pound, published recently. He and Louis Dudek recently sent to the press their anthology of basic articles for the study of Canadian literature.

Nominations for Woodrow Wilson Fellowships must be made by October 21. Those who wish to nominate candidates should contact the Chairman as soon as possible.

The Harold Ross bursary, worth $100.00, may be awarded to a student in English this year. Those who wish to suggest candidates should contact the Chairman as soon as possible.

The Editorial Board of PRISM has asked members of the English Department to contribute $50.00 towards prizes for the best poems or stories submitted for publication (last year we raised $25.00). Two dollars from every member of the department will do it.

Please send your (voluntary) contributions to me by October 5. No law against exceeding the minimum amount requested.
